

EPFO SSA Previous Year Paper - 2019

Directions (1-9): Read the passage given below carefully and answer the questions based on the passage.

Ratings agency Moody's has reacted predictably to the turbulence in the economy by revising the outlook on its sovereign rating for India from stable to negative. Moody's India rating is a notch higher than that of Standard & Poor's and the outlook revision now may well be to compensate for its past optimism on India. Yet, the outlook revision has to be seen for what it is: a warning that if the economy fails to bounce back soon enough, the sovereign rating could be up for an unfavorable review. With due respect to Moody's, none of the issues that it has highlighted is unknown. The growth slowdown and its effects on the fiscal deficit and borrowings are the main worries. On the one hand, tax revenue growth is nowhere near budgeted levels and with the slowdown extending into the third quarter, it is clear that tax revenues will undershoot by a wide margin. On the other, the government has been forced to spend more to give a leg up to the economy. Apart from pushing expenditure on capital projects, the government last month gave away corporate tax concessions amounting to a whopping ₹1.45 lakh crore. Even with the boost from the ₹1.76 lakh crore dividend payout from the Reserve Bank of India, the budget arithmetic is optimistic and it now appears certain that the government will miss the fiscal deficit target of 3.3% of GDP. The only question is: by how much? Moody's has projected that the deficit will slip to 3.7% of GDP this fiscal. Ratings agencies are ultra-sensitive to fiscal deficit overruns but the positive factor here is that India's borrowings are almost wholly domestic. External debt to GDP is just 20% but the ratings do have an impact on investor sentiment.

But the Moody's outlook revision comes when there are faint signs of a revival in the economy. To be sure, it may be another quarter or two before growth picks up — the second quarter numbers due later this month may show GDP growing at less than 5%. But the festive season uptick in sales of automobiles and white goods does point to the return of the consumer to the market. Of course, the possibility that it was an artificial boost driven by the big discounts that were on offer cannot be ruled out. But there are other positive signals such as the increase in bank credit offtake reported by the RBI for the second successive fortnight. The government needs to press the pedal harder on reforms and in debugging GST. It may also have little option than to go big on disinvestment in the remaining four months of this fiscal. The target of ₹1.05 lakh crore that it set for itself in the budget has to be bested by a wide margin if the fiscal deficit slippage is to be contained. The supportive measures announced in the last two months should be closely monitored for implementation.

Solutions

S1. Ans.(d)

Sol. Referring from the lines in the first paragraph, i.e “The growth slowdown and its effects on the fiscal deficit and borrowings are the main worries”, It is implicit that these are the main reasons for the revisions of the rating by Moody’s.

S2. Ans.(e)

Sol. This can be understood through the given above lines of the first paragraph, i.e “On the other, the government has been forced to spend more to give a leg up to the economy. Apart from pushing expenditure on capital projects, the government last month gave away corporate tax concessions amounting to a whopping ₹1.45 lakh crore”.

S3. Ans.(e)

Sol. Referring to the lines mentioned in the last few lines of the first paragraph, i.e “Ratings agencies are ultra-sensitive to fiscal deficit overruns but the positive factor here is that India’s borrowings are almost wholly domestic”, it is pretty clear that the option (b) will fit here.

Now, glancing through the lines in the second paragraph, But there are other positive signals such as the increase in bank credit offtake reported by the RBI for the second successive fortnight, it is pretty clear that option (d) holds true.

This makes option (e) our correct answer choice.

S4. Ans.(d)

Sol. This can be inferred from the few lines mentioned in the last part of the passage. “The government needs to press the pedal harder on reforms and in debugging GST. It may also have little option than to go big on disinvestment in the remaining four months of this fiscal”. From these lines it is implicit that the most suitable option that fits here is option (d).

S5. Ans.(c)

Sol. While going through the sentences of the passage, it is pretty clear that the only option fits here is option (c). As the whole passage talks about the reason Moody’s downgraded its rating from ‘stable’ to ‘negative’ and the policy government should take at its best to revive the economy.

S6. Ans.(d)

Sol. Referring to the lines in the first paragraph, it is mentioned that, Moody’s has projected that the deficit will slip to 3.7% of GDP this fiscal.

This makes option (d) our correct answer choice.

S7. Ans.(a)

Sol. Oblivious- not aware of or concerned about what is happening around one

Placid- not easily upset or excited.

Pacifying- to bring or restore to a state of peace or tranquillity; quiet; calm:

Option (a) is the correct answer choice for the given word.

S8. Ans.(e)

Sol. Torturous- characterized by, involving, or causing pain or suffering.

Agonizing- causing great physical or mental pain.

Suave- Smoothly agreeable or polite; agreeably or blandly urbane.

Pedal -To work or use the pedals, as in playing an organ or propelling a bicycle.

Provincial -Having or showing the manners, viewpoints, etc.

This makes our correct answer choice option (e).

S9. Ans.(c)

Sol. Outlook means to “view or prospect from a particular place”.

Taunt- To reproach in a sarcastic, insulting, or jeering manner; mock.

Sneer- To smile, laugh, or contort the face in a manner that shows scorn or contempt

Crook- a bent or curved implement, piece, appendage, etc.; hook.

This makes our correct answer choice (c).

S10. Ans.(b)

Sol. Going through the given sentences, it can be clearly seen that (E) will be first in arrangement because of the starters of the remaining sentences restricts them to be the first sentence in the arrangement. Now taking hint from ‘threatened the life and safety’ it can be seen that the next sentence in the arrangement would be (B). Next in the arrangement will be (C) followed by sentence (A) and (D) as these sentences are talking about the remarks which is mentioned in sentence (C). So the correct sequence of sentences after rearrangement is EBCAD. Hence, the correct choice is option (b)

S21. Ans.(c)

Sol. There is a grammatical error in D part of the sentence. Use of "with" after comparison is incorrect. It has to be replaced with "to" to make the sentence grammatically correct.

S22. Ans.(e)

Sol. There is no error in the sentence. Hence, answer would be option (e).

S23. Ans.(b)

Sol. There is a grammatical error in C part of the sentence. Use of "though" is superfluous. Hence, answer would be option (b).

S24. Ans.(b)

Sol. There is a grammatical error in C part of the sentence. It should be "means" which means an action or system by which a result is achieved; a method. Hence, answer would be option (b).

S25. Ans.(b)

Sol. There is a grammatical error in C part of the sentence. It should be "had loomed" in place of "loomed" because this clause must be in past perfect tense. When two actions take place in past one after the other the former action is expressed in past perfect tense and the latter is expressed in simple past tense. Hence, answer would be option (b).
